Note that our starting times are mostly 6:30 this year, but check website as there are some variances.

News from the Tasting Room

Need gift ideas? We have Laleure Logo wine glasses to go along with our new 2 bottle gift carriers. We have also added a line of custom Laleure cards for various celebration occasions. And don't forget the wine bottle coolers for the summer months coming

News from the Vineyard

The winter was kind to the vines this year, so we start off with great optimism. The vines are all pruned and tied, and we are in the process of "un-mounding" the protective earth layer that we "mounded up" in the fall. It has been a bit wet this spring, sometimes making it difficult to get into the vineyards to work, but that seems over and all is well.

News from the winery

The 2018 wines have all completed fermentation, cold stabilization and multiple rackings. Once we finish up the critical spring work in the vineyards we will begin to move some wines to oak, and bottle others. First in line is a new Rosé, and then our latest "sur lis" chardonnay. Then on to some new cab franc vintages and our new Paradox blend.

The Laleure website shows details for entertainment under the Entertainment tab. There we list the artists, give a brief bio, and provide a link to their websites so you can listen ahead to their music. Laleure does prefer artists who write at least some of their lyrics, as you will see by reading up on many of them. Click here: Laleure Entertainment
