News from the Vineyard

What a fantastic season for growing grapes. Although it started out a bit wet, the long dry period before harvest really helped to let the fruit hang long and develop wonderful flavors.

News from the winery

- The 2019 wines have all completed both primary and secondary fermentation, and have been racked multiple times.
- Relatively new releases include our 2016 chardonnay which was barrel fermented and aged according to the sur lies process. The flavors are amazing, and it is crisp yet smooth. Perhaps the best Laleure Chard so far.
- We have also recently released our new "Paradox" blend which is powerful yet quite soft on the palate. Our big red wine lovers are giving it good marks.
- Just bottled in time for our Annual Celebration is the new 2018 Hop'd Up Vignoles. This has plenty of hop flavor for a hophead. We also bottled the regular 2018 Vignoles.

The Laleure website shows details for entertainment under the Entertainment tab. There we list the artists, give a brief bio, and provide a link to their websites so you can listen ahead to their music. Laleure does prefer artists who write at least some of their lyrics, as you will see by reading up on many of them. Click here: Laleure Entertainment
