Message from Laleure

The 2022 vintage looks great so far this season. Looking forward to making some excellent wines from our grapes in the fall

New vintages are being released at Laleure. The 2019 cabernet franc and 2019 Pinot noir along with the 2020 Chambourcin Rosé are the earliest for 2022 releases, soon to be followed by our new "Orange Process" Vignoles and many more.

We are particularly excited to announce our first Art Show at Laleure featuring local artists from the Butler Institute of Art as well as many others. Details below and on the website

Events at the winery

Saturday Afternoon "Music in the Silo" Series (Instrumentals)- The Music in the Silo Series has started each Saturday afternoon at 1:30. Sit back and relax with a glass of wine while listening to guitar instrumentals help you select those perfect wines to drink on premises or take home

May 27 Mark Freeman Friday at 6:30 - Beautiful words written by Mark, A wonderful & full gravelly voice, and fantastic guitar work. One of Rich's favorite acts at Laleure, Mark returns after a long covid hiatus Mark Freeman

June 3 Joe Fritz & friends Friday at 6:30 - Joe brings lots of fun into your evening with an entertaining personality, deep resonant voice, great guitar & banjo, and we all love his 12 string Joe Fritz Band

June 11 First Art Show to be hosted by Laleure. Local artists will be displaying their art work, including docents from the Butler Institute of Art and other local artists. Browse the artwork with a glass of wine, talk to the artists. This is a great way to meet the artists as well as others who share your passion for art.

June 17 Swap Meet - From band-member Peter "Swap Meet comes to you from Prague, Czechoslovakia. We play a stew of many styles from Swing to Hillbilly to Gypsy music and everything in between. We are a 3-part harmony acoustic band punctuated with driving rub board rhythms and intricate solos." Come on down and party with us... we'll play a special song just for you

July 8 Hey Mavis Friday at 6:30 Returning to Laleure, this well known group includes banjoist/songwriter Laurie Michelle Caner and violinist/fiddler Eddie Caner. This North-coast Americana band has been weaving a musical tapestry and igniting a following of dedicated fans with traditional fiddle tunes, and many heartfelt originals that we love to offer at Laleure. Hey Mavis has appeared on NPR's Mountain Stage, NPR's Whad'ya Know?, PBS's Applause and PBS's Songs from the Center. Hey Mavis

July 22 Hiram Rapids Stumblers Friday at 7:00 "The Stumblers, a five-piece bluegrass band, have been playing all over NE Ohio for the last ten years. They bring high energy music you can dance and sing along to" The Hiram Stumblers

August 5 Three Guys & a Gal - Friday at 6:30 pm - Jeff & Glen with several others including strong vocals will be playing many of your favorite tunes from 60's 70's, 80's and more. Acoustic/light rock, and beyond. Always a pleasure to have this local band perform at Laleure.

August 26 The Woodpeckers - Friday at 6:30 pm - Eclectic band playing blues, rock, country and lots more. Always entertaining, and a whole lot of fun. Great musicians making fantastic music with their instruments and voices

September 23 Hiram Rapids Stumblers Friday at 7:00 "The Stumblers, a five-piece bluegrass band, have been playing all over NE Ohio for the last

News from the Tasting Room

Getting ready to introduce our new "Orange process" Vignoles—hopefully in June!

Laleure Vineyards started growing grapes in Parkman, Ohio in 1997. Laleure is a small boutique winery dedicated to producing high quality wines made primarily from vinifera grapes grown on the property. The varieties offered include Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, Cabernet franc Riesling, Sauvignon blanc, Vignoles, Chambourcin, Bianca, as well as red and white blends.
